Folsom Church Dedication

FOLSOM, NEW MEX. JULY 16th, '06.
EDITOR OF THE CLAYTON ENTERPRISE.

DEAR SIR:—Thinking it may be of interest to many of Folsom's friends I send you to day an account of the dedication of the St. Paul M. E. Church on the 15 inst.

The services were opened by the chorus "Glory" by the choir, then the "Apostle's creed" followed by the good old hymn "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name" then prayer by the Evangelist Rev. George Ray, of Roswell New Mexico, followed by a solo "Just As I Am" by Mrs. B. F. Qwens, with Mrs. Ferguson at the Organ, and was rendered with great feeling and effect, then the lesson by Dr. A. P. Morrison, followed by the Anthem "Praise Ye the Father" by the choir, then come the announcements followed by a solo "My Faith in Thee" by Mrs. Grimmel, Rev. Grimmel at the Organ, which was a rich treat to all who heard it. Then come the sermon by Dr. A. P. Morrison from a text found in the 20th. Chap. of Acts last clause of the 20th. Ver. "It is more blessed to give than receive" and I would like to give some of the splendid illustrations he used, but space forbids but the sermon was as every one knows who has ever heard the Dr. preach, a spiritual blessing and an intellectual feast. This was followed by the financial statement by the auditing committee, and the pastor's report of finances and it was found necessary to raise $300.00 to complete the furnishings of the church and Bro. Grimmel asked the congregation to come forward and meet the amount, and now come the practical part of Dr.'s sermon, and from the way the subscriptions poured in commencing with $50.00 dollars from the Ladies Aid and another $50.00 from John King, the amount was raised in a very short time, and I think from the smiling faces on every hand and general joy manifested that all felt the truth of the Dr.'s text and the power of his sermon. Now come the Dedication services and presentation of the building to the M. E. Church, after this a Dedicating hymn written by Frances, set to music, composed for the occasion, Mrs. Timmons acting organist for all the services except the two pieces mentioned. The services were closed by singing the "Old Hundred" "Praise God From whom All Blessings Flow" and the benediction by Dr. Morrison. The church, itself can be best described by a remark of the Dr.'s "It is a perfect little gem" and it reflects great credit on Mr. M. G. Record for the faithful and efficient work he put into it. Unfortunately, there were three memorial windows ordered, but were not completed in time for the dedication. There is one thing more I must mention, a beautiful pulpit, the gift of Bro. Grimmel and wife. There will be protracted services through the week conducted by Bro. George Ray, of Roswell, and we look for a glorious ingathering into the church of God, which may God grant.

JACKSON TABOR.

Carl Gilg Succumbs.

The Fatal Shot at Last Claims Its Victim and Our Beloved Friend and Neighbor Passes to the Great Unknown.

About nine o'clock Saturday night, surrounded by those he loved, the Angel of Death came with the welcome balm of eternal sleep and the tired sufferer closed his eyes to open them on this earth no more.

The funeral services were held from the First Baptist Church Sunday morning at 10 o'clock and were attended by a large crowd of relatives and friends which filled the church to overflowing and reached quite to the sidewalk.

The services were conducted, both in English and German, by the Lutheran minister from Trinidad and were very touching and impressive, giving sweet hope to the bereaved and carrying all hearers to a higher and purer atmosphere of righteous living.

The flowers were many and beautiful and the songs by the choir well rendered and appropriate. The remains were laid to rest in the Clayton cemetery.

MEMORIAL.

Carl Gilg was born in Germany and came to this country about twenty-five years ago, when he was in his early teens. Came from the densely populated Fatherland intending to carve out for himself a home and a place in the great West. At the time of his coming he was hampered by his inability to speak the English language, but he overcame this disadvantage in a few years by close study, and from a very small beginning he had at the time of his sudden taking away, accumulated a property in this county valued at several thousand dollars. He was a good man, one of our best citizens, and a man of many friends. He made every one his friend by unconsciously showing in his every word and act how worthy he was of friendship, how pure his mind, how gentle his heart. He was a quiet man without sensational brilliancy, but his genuine honesty of soul and his strong placid nature inspired confidence in all of those with whom he had contact. He never lost his simple manners, and was always guided by the clear common sense with which his birth and his breeding had endowed him. Of cheerful disposition and a spirit averse to strife, to hate and to discord; his face was always frank and pleasant to look upon. His wife and little ones worshiped him, his friends and fellow citizens all loved and trusted him implicitly. His was a true life, the work of which is even more durable than the century defying stone.

Carl Gilg had no weeks of sore affliction. The Grim Messenger touched him with his wand most suddenly. His friends and his loved ones left behind him, while they shall sit in the sack cloth of their mourning, must all remember that humanity is composed of one family—the living and the dead.

Those who have done their allotted work here, after they leave us, shed their benefactions on us. That is all of life.

Let his family and his friends all remember that the spirit of him for whom we sorrow, to day has entered "Into the joys of the Lord;" Plant a rose and a laurel on his grave, and from their hearts be willing to say: "Glory to God in the highest, on earth peace, good will to men."

Our hearts go out in sympathy to the widowed wife and fatherless little ones and trust they will find the comforting love of the Heavenly Father all sufficient in this dark hour of their sorrow.

Nor do we forget the other lives that were darkened by the same shot, for who shall say but that theirs is the deepest, most hopeless sorrow—a living sorrow and disgrace which all time can make not one whit less keen. Crazed with grief and shame, Mrs. Bolton, the wife of the man who fired the fatal shot has been lying at the point of death at her home ever since the tragedy, and was removed to her brother's home in Stratford, Texas the first of the week, where it is hoped she may be nursed back to health.

Death of Dr. Albert Lloyd.

We have just received the sad news of the death of Dr. Albert Lloyd of Denver, Colo. Dr. Lloyd and his brother were formerly the proprietors of one of the leading drug stores in Denver, but about a year ago they sold out the drug store and Dr. Albert Lloyd received the appointment of pharmacist for the county hospital. On last Saturday night he was taken ill and died at 7 o'clock Wednesday morning. We are informed that the trouble was some intestinal disease. Dr. Lloyd was married to Miss Nellie Thornton, in Denver, about three years ago.—X
